THIS AGREEMENT is made on this _____ day of _____, 200_, by and between _____, hereinafter referred to as the "Adopter" and ANGEL HORSE RESCUE, INC. hereinafter referred to as "the Rescue".

Adopter agrees to pay the adoption fee of $_____ :

- 1) Adopter understands and agrees that the equine identified in this contract remains the property of the Rescue for a one-year period beginning on the above date. The equine will be maintained and cared for by Adopter under this agreement and that if, in the opinion of the Rescue, Adopter has maintained and cared for the equine in a manner as set forth in the Adoption Policy's "Standards of Care," Adopter will be allowed to retain the equine and all right, title and interest to the equine will be released to Adopter after the end of this one-year period.
- 2) Adopter understands that during this one-year period, Adopter may not sell, give away, lend, lease, sell for slaughter, remove from Adopter's personal supervision and control or move the equine from the address described herein, except for emergencies, shows, trail rides and other situations, without the written approval of the Rescue. During the one-year period, except in a case of explainable emergency, shows, trail rides or other temporary situations, should the equine not be at the location as stated herein upon inspection by a Rescue representative, Adopter will immediately relinquish any rights or interest Adopter may have in the equine and Adopter shall assist in every way possible to locate and return said equine to the Rescue. Adopter will be responsible for any costs incurred by the Rescue to acquire and transport said equine to the Rescue facilities.

3) Should Adopter decide that the equine is no longer wanted for any reason during or after the one-year period of this contract, Adopter understands that the Rescue will take the equine back and attempt to place it with another adopter.

(a). If the Adopter returns the above-described equine within thirty (30) days from the date of this contract, the Organization agrees to a refund of $_____ (the adoption fee minus a $50 processing fee) minus the cost of transporting the equine to the Rescue facility or approved foster home and/or cost of any veterinary work needed as result of injuries or illnesses sustained while in the adopter's possession.

(b). If the Adopter returns the above-described equine within a period of one year (12 months) from the date of this contract, the Organization agrees to a partial refund of $_____ (half the adoption fee minus a $50 processing fess) minus the cost of transporting the equine to the Rescue or an approved foster home and/or cost of any veterinary work needed as result of injuries or illnesses sustained while in the adopter's possession.

4) Adopter agrees that the equine will never be sold for slaughter or sold through any auction for any reason whatsoever and that all sales or lease contracts hereafter shall so stipulate and that this sentence shall be included in whole.

5) Adopter agrees that, during this one-year period, should it become necessary to euthanize said equine for medical reasons Adopter must provide a statement as to the cause and agreement of said action to the Rescue signed by a licensed veterinarian.

6) Adopter agrees that, during this one-year period, said equine shall reside at a property that has been inspected and approved by the Rescue and that, should the property not belong to the Adopter, all terms of this agreement shall apply as if the property belonged to the Adopter.

7) Adopter agrees that, during this one-year period, an authorized representative of the Rescue may enter the property where said equine resides during normal business hours and without notice to determine if all conditions of this Adoption Contract are being complied with completely. Adopter understands that should a violation of any of these terms found in this agreement be found during the one-year period, and in the judgment of at least two members of the Board of Directors of the Rescue such conditions represent a danger to the health and welfare of the equine, Adopter hereby authorizes a representative of the Rescue to enter the property at any time and without cause or warrant upon the land where said equine resides and take immediate physical possession of said equine without recourse from Adopter. If the equine is determined by a veterinarian to be in a debilitated or unhealthy condition on return due in part or in whole to Adopter's failure to comply with the terms of this contract, Adopter will be responsible for and hereby agrees to reimburse the Rescue for all costs incurred to return the equine to a healthy condition.

8) Adopter further agrees that, during this one-year period, Adopter will accept all responsibility for any action or lien resulting from any action, directly or indirectly involving said equine while it is in Adopter's possession and under Adopter's care and control. Therefore, Adopter agrees and understands that neither the Rescue nor its employees or agents will be liable for any damages or injury caused to Adopter or any third person by the equine once Adopter receives delivery of the equine, including but not limited to damages or injuries caused by the fact that the equine does not behave or perform in the manner Adopter expected. Further, if any third person makes a claim against the Rescue or any of its employees or agents as a result of any conduct of the equine after Adopter has taken possession of the equine, Adopter agrees to indemnify and hold the Rescue, its employees and agents harmless from any such claim, including costs and attorney's fee resulting from such claim.

9) Adopter may personally return the equine to the Rescue or Adopter may arrange for their return to the Rescue by an authorized representative of the Rescue if Adopter so desires at anytime during the equine's life. In the event of Adopter's death, and if Adopter's heirs are unable to maintain the equine, Adopter's heirs may also return the equine to the Rescue as provided for above. If Adopter's death occurs during the one-year contract period, each and all parts of this contract will be transferred and automatically assigned to Adopter's heirs in their entirety as if such parties had signed the original contract.

10) The Adopter agrees never to breed the above-described equine for the duration of the equine's life. If the equine is bred, the resulting offspring of the equine automatically becomes the property of the Rescue and must be returned to the Rescue once it is old enough to be weaned.

11) Adopter represents that they have read and agree with all statements and agree to be bound by all conditions contained herein and signed by Adopter.

12) I understand that it is my responsibility to read, understand and obey the current adoption policies of the Rescue. These policies are posted on the Rescue's website and a printed copy is available upon request.
